CORPORATE TRAVEL POLICY

TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Effective: July 2026

Domestic Travel

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Domestic Travel at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Domestic Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

International Travel

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for International Travel at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to International Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Flight Booking

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Flight Booking at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Flight Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Hotel Booking

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Hotel Booking at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Hotel Booking must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Daily Allowance

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Daily Allowance at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Daily Allowance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Corporate Credit Cards

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Corporate Credit Cards at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Corporate Credit Cards must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Travel Approvals

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Travel Approvals at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Approvals must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Travel Insurance

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Travel Insurance at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Travel Insurance must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Client Visits

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Client Visits at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Client Visits must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Business Meetings

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Business Meetings at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Business Meetings must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Expense Claims

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Expense Claims at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Expense Claims must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Emergency Travel

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Emergency Travel at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Emergency Travel must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Safety Guidelines

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Safety Guidelines at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Safety Guidelines must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

FAQs

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for FAQs at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to FAQs must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Examples

The following section details the official policies and operational guidelines for Examples at TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. This framework is designed to balance business necessity with employee well-being and fiscal responsibility.

Article 1: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 1.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 1.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 1.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 2: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 2.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 2.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 2.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 3: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 3.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 3.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 3.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 4: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 4.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 4.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 4.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Article 5: Procedural Governance

Adherence to the standards set forth in this article is mandatory for all personnel. This policy ensures consistency, compliance with travel regulations, and internal audit readiness.

- Provision 5.1: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.2: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.3: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.4: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.5: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established

approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

- Provision 5.6: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.
- Provision 5.7: All travel arrangements must be made through the designated corporate booking tool. Any deviations from the authorized travel policy require prior approval from the department head. Employees are responsible for maintaining compliance with safety standards and submitting all expenses in accordance with the corporate expense management system. Falsification of claims or non-compliance with the established approval workflow will result in disciplinary action. All records related to Examples must be archived for a period of seven (7) years to support periodic audits.

Appendix: Base Prompt

Generate an official Corporate Travel Policy for TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Length:
70â€“100 pages.

Topics:

- Domestic travel
- International travel
- Flight booking
- Hotel booking
- Daily allowance
- Corporate credit cards
- Travel approvals
- Travel insurance
- Client visits
- Business meetings
- Expense claims
- Emergency travel
- Safety guidelines
- FAQs
- Examples

Append the Base Prompt below and generate the complete document.